Apple Tart with Clotted Cream

Surely the most traditional British pudding made with the most loved apple, the Bramley – and served with the most traditional cream!

Spotted Dick & Custard

The first recipe of this popular dessert was found in an 1849 book
'The Modern Housewife' but there seems to be no agreed reason for this most popular of desserts upon the meaning for its name!

Eton Mess

First mentioned in print in 1893 but believed to be much, much older and served to boys at Eton college It is, therefore, a certainty that former Prime Ministers – Disraeli, Ramsey McDonald and Churchill besides countless others enjoyed this dessert.
Hope you do as well!
